of the proposed transfer of the Recorder Tract Society at the close of the present volume and of the necessity the present publisher claims that time be made for the following accounts:

With the utmost kindness he hopes every person concerned will understand it and then either avail himself of its benefits or take good care of the call of collecting and cheerfully pay the demanded sum of his bill for the pleasure of the call viz. all accounts for the Recorder whether or for past volumes or for the present one be settled full at the rate of $2.50 per year paid before the last of our twenty-sixth number, or Monday, June 17th. All accounts unpaid at the time named above will be made out at the rate of $3 per year according to our published terms and put in process of collection.

If any person reneging money to us prefers paying till the end of the next name we will be that the money be properly applied or promptly returned.

Corresponding Secretary of the American Sabbath Tract Society in communication relating to the Publishing Interests of the Society, printed April 18th. We recommend that the pattern of this paper the suggestion of Bro. [illegible] regarding making payment at the end of the current arrear. One remittance may then take the place of two and the Tract Board, through our representative, satisfactorily arrange the work of collecting all due to the proper sett by the 17th of June. This made by all duty to utter and to our selves, I am not too much to hope that this will be accomplished such result would be greatly to the credit of Seventh-day Baptists and promote much for the cause in years to come.
