We shall try to true Christian, thus to attend on those brethren to the troth. Their genuine words cannot always cover up facts. Matter for the Tract Department reaches us this week on Monday too late for us to glance anything but the foregoing. It would be well for correspondents to remember that our paper goes to press at three o'clock Monday afternoon rendering it difficult to get much besides the general news, obtainable &c.