THE SABBATH RECORDER, JULY 18, 1872.

NEW YORK.—Our correspondent reports that the half year's collections of this annual meeting were as follows:

- March 31st: $6,771.00
- June 30th: $6,406.00
- September 30th: $6,745.00
- December 31st: $6,415.00

Total for the half year: $25,347.00

EMERSON.—The name of the late Ralph Waldo Emerson has been a frequent topic of conversation in our streets and public squares this week. The man who has been most closely associated with Emerson's career is also a subject of much interest. It is said that the two men were very similar in their looks and habits, and that they were often mistaken for each other. Emerson was a great friend of the late poet, and it is said that he often visited him in his sickbed. Emerson was also a great man of letters, and his works have been read by millions of people. He was a great admirer of Shakespeare, and his works have been translated into many languages. It is said that he was a great man of letters, and his works have been read by millions of people. He was a great admirer of Shakespeare, and his works have been translated into many languages. It is said that he was a great man of letters, and his works have been read by millions of people. He was a great admirer of Shakespeare, and his works have been translated into many languages.