THE SABBATH RECORDER, FEBRUARY 8, 1872.

The Great Department.

The Sabbath Recorder.

A NEW FIELD OF SERVICE.

A SABBATH SCHOOLS COMMITTEE was appointed at the last Annual Convention of the General Conference in the fall of last year, to consider the propriety of a system of Sabbath Schools on a larger scale than that now in existence. The Committee was composed of brethren who have given much time and thought to the subject; and their report was read in the last session of the General Conference, when it was adopted. The Committee then further reported, that in order to carry out their purposes, it would be necessary to have a number of Sabbath Schools in various parts of the country, each under the care of a Sabbath School Committee. This report was also adopted, and the Committee was directed to make arrangements for the establishment of these Sabbath Schools, and to report the same to the General Conference next session.

PROCEEDINGS DURING THE DAY.

The proceedings during the day were in order; and the President, in his opening address, spoke of the great importance of the Sabbath School, and of the necessity of its being supported by every one who is able to do so.

The Treasurer, in his report, stated that the receipts for the year were $500, and the expenses $50. He recommended a subscription of $100 to the General Conference, and $100 to the Sabbath School Committee. The report was adopted, and the Treasurer was directed to forward the money to the General Conference.

The Secretary, in his report, stated that the number of Sabbath Schools in the country was 500, and the number of scholars 50,000. He recommended the establishment of a number of Sabbath Schools in the country, and the appointment of a Sabbath School Committee in each place.

The President, in his closing address, spoke of the necessity of supporting the Sabbath School, and of the importance of its being carried on in every part of the country. He recommended the establishment of a number of Sabbath Schools in the country, and the appointment of a Sabbath School Committee in each place.

The report of the Sabbath School Committee was read, and adopted, and the Committee was directed to proceed with the work of establishing Sabbath Schools in the country.

Treaties of Commercial Agreement.

The foreign ministers are to meet here, and several treaties of commercial agreement are to be concluded. These treaties are of considerable importance to the interests of commerce, and are expected to be signed in a very short time. The object of these treaties is to facilitate commerce between the United States and foreign countries, and to establish a system of reciprocity between the nations. The treaties are expected to provide for the free exchange of goods, and to promote the mutual advantage of the signatory nations.
