The Sabbath Recorder: Volume 42, No. 36, August 28, 1873

The Work of the Holy Spirit

The work of human agency is a great and noble one, and the work of the Holy Spirit, the work of divine agency, is an even greater and nobler one. The two work together, and in the hands of the right worker, they will bring forth a fruitful reward...

The schools were seated, and the assembly was opened for work by calling Professor J. Allen to the chair. Then followed some business and the assembly adjourned.

London Correspondence

The proceedings of the afternoon and evening were taken up with business. The next morning she was worse and had to be moved to another place. The patient was urged to go for a change, but she begged him not to go. She wanted to go home. Her father then, believing her mind was wandered, said, you are at home, my child. She answered, yes, but I want to go to my home in Heaven. Let me go. And she very soon died and went home. And now the poor...
