The Sabbath Recorder

The Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord Thy God.

Volume XXIX - No. 40
Alfred Center, N.Y., Fifth-Day, October 5, 1872
Whole No. 1496

The text on this page is too crowded to be legible and contains numerous paragraphs written in the style of 19th-century newspapers. It appears to be a religious publication, likely discussing topics related to the Sabbath and Christian doctrine.

Unfortunately, the content is not legible due to the quality of the image.
STORM GEORGIA was done by a heavy rain on the 19th of September mostly to railroads by the washing out of culverts causing the lock of traffic. Seven employees were reported killed.

The President has signed a postal convention between the United States and Newfoundland for the exchange of postal cards by the addition of one cent postage.

A despatch from England and Belgium announces the death in that town on the 26th of Galvano, the well-known Spanish statesman.

Ten persons were drowned in New York, of whom two were negroes, while a steamer was broken by a tide of water in the River Thames.
