Mr. Wardner.... also educated, and has written with the power which comes out from personal experience. This work was first published in London in 1724. It is valuable in the state of the Sabbath argument at that time. The society also published the following tradition which will be sold at large quantities... to any who desire them. Special orders will be filled with some delay. Twenty per cent discount allowed to clergymen on any of the above, and liberal discounts to the trade.
