THE SABBATH RECORDER, FEBRUARY 5, 1874.

LETTER FROM ENGLAND.

C. S. J.:

We have received another article from our correspondent in England, which we are pleased to give to our readers. It is written by Mr. J. C. H., and is a brief account of the proceedings of the Board of Guardians of the London Missionary Society, held last November, at their meeting in the Portico Rooms.

The Board of Guardians of the London Missionary Society met, as usual, last November, in the Portico Rooms, to consider the business of the society. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mr. T. C. D., who briefly explained the purpose of the meeting, and announced the topics to be discussed. The meeting was then opened with prayer, and the business of the society was taken up in alphabetical order.

First came the report of the Committee on the East Indies. The committee reported that the work in the East Indies was making good progress, and that the missionaries were doing their best to carry on the work of the society. The report was adopted by the unanimous consent of the board.

Next came the report of the Committee on the Pacific Islands. The committee reported that the work in the Pacific Islands was also making good progress, and that the missionaries were doing their best to carry on the work of the society. The report was adopted by the unanimous consent of the board.

Then came the report of the Committee on the African Missions. The committee reported that the work in Africa was also making good progress, and that the missionaries were doing their best to carry on the work of the society. The report was adopted by the unanimous consent of the board.

After the report of the Committee on the American Missions, the chairman invited the members to contribute what they could to the funds of the society. Many of the members contributed liberally, and the chairman expressed his satisfaction at the result.

The meeting then adjourned to a future date, when the business of the society will be resumed.

SABBATH AT SINGAPORE.

The Sabbath at Singapore is a scene of great interest and beauty. The city is built on a hill, and the buildings are scattered over the hillsides. The sun rises early in the morning, and as it rises, the clouds of smoke from the factories are dispersed, and the city is bathed in the warm rays of the sun. The sky is blue, and the air is warm and refreshing.

The churches are open, and the congregation is assembled. The organ is playing, and the choir is singing. The service is solemn and impressive, and the people are in a pious and devout mood. The preacher is delivering a discourse, and the congregation is attentive and interested.

The service is closed, and the people retire to their homes. The sun is setting, and the city is in a state of prosperity and contentment.
