To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder:

Your answer to my questions for Baptists (Feb. 11th) are about the same as other Baptists. Would an educator of the Holy Scriptures consider it wise to multiply words? I would respectfully and simply state my own point of view and ask to be corrected if anyone should be better informed. I am not correctly John the Baptist!!

was God. Messenger of Mal. 3:1. One of the greatest of the prophets before Christ. For he was the Friend of the Bridegroom and "the honor of introducing the Bridegroom to Israel." He said (John 1:8): And I knew him not, but that he should be made manifest to Israel. Then come baptizing with water. It appears then that the grand design of John's baptism was the manifestation of Christ. He needed to associate himself with the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world. Those who came to the baptism of John were to receive water into the body, and through that were to be identified with the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world.
