The Green Light—The Lord's Day.

The Sabbath is the 'green light' in the day of the Christian, according to the wise and prophetic words of the apostle John: 'Blessed is he that keepeth the Sabbath, and that honoureth it' (Isa. 56:2).

The Lord's Day is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of devotion, the day of preparation for the week. It is the day of the Lord, the day of the church, the day of the family, the day of the individual.

The Sabbath is a day of rest, and all who rest on it shall be blessed. It is a day of refreshment, and all who refresh themselves on it shall be blessed. It is a day of devotion, and all who devote themselves to it shall be blessed. It is a day of preparation, and all who prepare themselves for it shall be blessed.

The Sabbath is a day of rest for the body, the Sabbath is a day of refreshment for the soul, the Sabbath is a day of devotion for the heart, the Sabbath is a day of preparation for the week.

The following account of the manner in which a Kentucky brother bowed at the shrine of Franklin
Odds and Ends,
You say that there are no real stars because you met me. My meteor falls where for me it appeared to be a star. Would you say that blossoms never produced need because many of them fall off, and some fruit which appeared sound later became rotten at the core? Equally absurd is the assertion that there is no such thing as real religion because many who profess to hold away or prove to be hypocrites. When I married Mrs. Chad, the chancellor of the Exchequer, London dinner party, I declared with all my worldly goods, I will be endow, although I had not a shilling in the world. Bill chimed in the wife you had, your splendid talents, yes, my dear, but you know I did not endow you with them was the right honorable gentleman's reply. The Craftsman has a little tale to tell me for her to put away her child. He informed her that Santa Claus was no person at all there was no such person whereupon the child asked his mother if she had been telling me lies about Jesus Christ too?
