The Sabbath Recorder

PREPARED BY THE AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY.

VOLUME XXII.—NO. 47.

ALFRED CENTER, N. Y., FIFTH DAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1873.

WHOLE NO. 497.

Capt. John Smith, who had returned from his voyage to the coast of Virginia, in the year 1607, left behind him a record of his adventures, which has been called the Virginia Company's Journal. This journal contains an account of the manner in which the Pilgrims came to America, and of the manner in which they lived and conducted themselves in the new country. It also contains an account of the manner in which the Indians lived, and of the manner in which they were treated by the Pilgrims. The journal is written in a style which is characteristic of the times, and is extremely interesting to those who are interested in the history of the early settlement of America.

The journal was printed in London, in the year 1607, and is now a valuable

historical

document.

The

Pilgrims

were

band

to establish

church

in England,

who

were

not able

to

do

so

rulers

country. They

therefore

set

out

on

voyage

to

America,

where

they

hoped

find

land
