The Sabbath Recorder

Volume XXXI—No. 52

Alfred Center, N. Y., Fifth-Day, December 29, 1872

H. L. de Thun.

TO THE READER.

This number contains an article of interest and importance to all friends of the Sabbath, and we recommend its study with the greatest attention.

HOW TO PERFORM DEUTERONOMY.

Every Sabbath school, whether of small or great size, should be organized. Having a good, well-arranged plan of work, and a good teacher, it should be a source of pleasure and profit to all who participate in it. A good Sabbath school should be organized, and the work should be well managed. The teacher should be a man of learning, and a good, able man, who can give the children a good, solid education. A good Sabbath school should be organized, and the work should be well managed. The teacher should be a man of learning, and a good, able man, who can give the children a good, solid education. A good Sabbath school should be organized, and the work should be well managed. The teacher should be a man of learning, and a good, able man, who can give the children a good, solid education.

THY SABBATH IS THE SEVENTH DAY.

The Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. The Lord has chosen the Sabbath as a day of rest for his people. The Sabbath is a sign of the covenant between the Lord and his people. The Sabbath is a day of rest, a day of holy convocation, a day of holy observance, a day of holy rest, a day of holy communion, a day of holy observance, a day of holy rest, a day of holy communion, a day of holy observance, a day of holy rest, a day of holy communion. The Sabbath is a day of rest, a day of holy convocation, a day of holy observance, a day of holy rest, a day of holy communion, a day of holy observance, a day of holy rest, a day of holy communion.
The Sabbath Recorder, December 26, 1875.

After Short Day

To the credit of the publishers of the "Sabbath Recorder," it is pleasant to find this issue containing such valuable matter as will be seen from the following pages.

A few words before entering upon the subject of this short day, I cannot help regretting the absence of a single line of sacred music during the whole week. This is a most important subject, and should be made prominent in the religious papers of the day. It is a great pity that the publishers of the "Sabbath Recorder," and other religious journals, should neglect this opportunity of publishing such music, which is so necessary to the spiritual life of the people.

The first thing that strikes the eye in this issue is the fact that the "Sabbath Recorder" is a weekly publication. This is a great advantage, and should be made use of to the full extent. It should be published weekly, and not as a monthly or quarterly journal. The weekly publication will enable the editors to give more time and attention to their work, and will also enable them to publish more matter of importance. The weekly publication will also give the readers a better opportunity to study the articles, and will enable them to get a better understanding of the subject.

The "Sabbath Recorder" is a most excellent publication, and should be highly recommended to all who are interested in religious matters. It is a most valuable paper, and is one of the best publications of its kind in the United States. The "Sabbath Recorder" is a publication that should be read by all who are interested in religious matters, and who want to get a better understanding of the subject. It is a most excellent publication, and should be highly recommended to all who are interested in religious matters.