THE LATTER'S CREED.

WE BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL OF THE LATTER DAY, AND NOT IN THE GOSPEL OF THE CHURCHES
OF OUR DAY. That is what the American Sabbath Tract Society is doing. It is not trying to prove that the church of our day is the true church of Christ, but that there is a true church of Christ, and that the church of our day is not it.

The American Sabbath Tract Society is publishing a series of tracts, called "The Latter's Creed," which will be issued every month. The first of these tracts is entitled "The Authority of Scripture," and it is printed in the form of a question-and-answer dialogue between a youth and an instructor. The youth asks a number of questions about the Bible, and the instructor answers them in a clear and concise manner. The dialogue is followed by a list of references to the Scriptures which are cited in the dialogue.

The American Sabbath Tract Society is doing a valuable work in publishing these tracts, and we hope that many will profit by them.
