The Sabbath Recorder, January 4, 1877.

A BOLD VIEW TO KNOW.

To many persons, the new year looks forward with a smile, and with anticipation of enjoyment and prosperity. The spirit of the Christmas festival is gone, and the new year is a new beginning. The vernal equinox is yet distant, but the sun is on the wane, and looking forward to another year of health and prosperity, is a joy to many a heart. The winter holidays are gone, and the new year is a new beginning. The spirit of the Christmas festival is gone, and the new year is a new beginning. The vernal equinox is yet distant, but the sun is on the wane, and looking forward to another year of health and prosperity, is a joy to many a heart.

THE SABBATH RECORDER, JANUARY 4, 1877.

NEWS ITEMS:

One New York fireman died, and a second was mortally wounded, in the fire at the Hotel de Paris. The hotel was a three-story building, occupied by the American Bible Society in the lower story, and by Mr. Millard, the publisher of the Christian Register, in the upper story. The fire broke out in the kitchen of the hotel, and the flames spread rapidly to the other stories. The firemen were unable to control the flames, and the building was destroyed.

A train left Cleveland this morning for St. Paul, carrying the body of the late President Lincoln, who died here on the 15th of April, 1865. The body was embalmed and placed in a coffin, and was accompanied by a large body of military and civil officials.

A large number of delegates from the various States met in Washington yesterday, to consider the question of the secession of the Southern States. They were received by the President, who stated that the Union was preserved by force of arms, and that it was the duty of all citizens to support the government.

THE SABBATH:

The Sabbath is a day of solemnity and rest, and should be observed with all the decency and propriety which are becoming to a people who prize the blessings of freedom and religion.

CONGREGATIONAL:

The Congregational Church in this city has been much benefited by the recent earthquake, which caused a great deal of damage in the surrounding country. The church is in a state of ruin, and the congregation is doing all they can to repair the building.

A young man was discovered in the woods, who had been missing for several days. He was brought to the hospital, where he was treated with great care and attention. He was recovered, and is now convalescing.

A young woman was found dead in her room, apparently from a violent cause. The police were called, and an investigation was made. The cause of death was not determined, but it is believed to be suicide.

A young man was found guilty of assault and battery, and sentenced to five years in prison. He had been arrested in connection with a robbery, and it is believed that he was the mastermind of the crime.

A young man was apprehended on a charge of murder. He had been seen near the scene of the crime, and there were other indications that he was involved. He is now in custody, and will be tried at the next session of the court.
