A COUNTRY WEDDING.

The wedding day of Stephen Wilson of Toulon Hill and MissOperator at the apartment of Mr. Moses, Christmas day, 1877, was one of the most memorable occasions of the season. The wedding party assembled at the house of the bride at 9 a.m., and proceeded to the church of Toulon Hill, where the ceremony of marriage was performed by the Rev. Mr. Adams, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Brown. The bride and groom were then conveyed to the apartment of the bride, where a sumptuous dinner was prepared.

The guests were seated in the apartment, and the bride and groom stood in the center, flanked by their bridesmaids and groomsmen. The guests were addressed by the Rev. Mr. Adams, who gave a brief address on the importance of marriage and the duties of a husband and wife. The guests then enjoyed a sumptuous dinner, which was followed by a dance and a sing-song, during which the guests were entertained by the bride and groom.
