OF TRACTS

AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT

SOCIETY

N Y

TURE

8

JOD ND His MRloIORJAL;

of Four SennoDs

on the

Bub

A

of be Sabba

m

85 D0Bry at Shangha Ch11l'<h

a.

e

m

85 DOBry at Shangha Ch11l'<h

a.

L

Genesee

N Y

Seoi:JndEdition

12,

pp FIne Clo

60 conte.

Paper

10 cn"
THE SABBATH-RECORDE.

JANUARY 16, 1877.

THE SABBATH QUOTATIONS.

"The sabbath is a holy day," says the 4th Commandment, "unto the Lord thy God; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them; and rested the seventh day, therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and sanctified it." Ex. 20:8-11.

THE SABBATH WITNESS.

The great Public Meeting in Poplar-market, on the 15th inst., was singularly successful in its religious results. Numerous New Testament testimonies were given, and the blessing of the Lord was on the proceedings. The meeting was opened by a prayer by Bro. Daniel S. Walker, of Portland, Me., and conducted by Bro. Andrew M. F. Hamblin, of Chicago, Ill.

The following notices have been received of the death of some of our children: Mrs. Mary A. Smith, of North Attleboro, Mass.; Mrs. Sarah P. Lee, of New York, N. Y.; and Mrs. Sarah B. Smith, of New York, N. Y. Their loved ones are left behind, but their memory will be kept fresh by the Church, and their influence will be felt by those who knew them. May God grant them rest, and may their families be comforted in their bereavements.

LETTERS FROM ABROAD.

To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder:

I have just received a letter from my friend, a minister of the Gospel, who is now residing in the Indian Territory. He writes: "The Indians are gradually becoming Christians, and many of them are showing a great interest in the truths of the Gospel. The work is progressing steadily, and I am glad to report that there are now over a thousand converts among the Indians. The Indians are very receptive of the truths of the Gospel, and I am encouraged to think that many more will be converted in the near future."
WASHINGTON LETTERS.

A large crowd are now on the way to the Capitol to witness the proceedings of the Grand Duke Alexs, whose last visit to Washington was received with pleasure by all who met him, is expected here the lat part of the week. The Johnson House and adjoining hotel has been set aside for the same yoke, and the fixed seat of the Committee of the House, and the arraignment of George Washington, who acted as Henry 8th's agent left for Panama.

The Barataria River Paper, containing the following notice, was filled in the week of February 15th, and former notice, the paper will be sent to those who wish it: The Barataria River Paper, 11. C. 1. 1799. The subscription price is one dollar a year, and it is expected to be sent to those who wish it.

It is published every Wednesday, and it is expected to be sent to those who wish it. It is printed on the best of paper, and is issued with the approval of the Committee of the House.

The Washington Union, containing the following notice, was filled in the week of February 15th, and former notice, the paper will be sent to those who wish it: The Washington Union, 11. C. 1. 1799. The subscription price is one dollar a year, and it is expected to be sent to those who wish it.

The subscription price is $1.00 a year, and it is expected to be sent to those who wish it. It is printed on the best of paper, and is issued with the approval of the Committee of the House.

In the House, held on the 15th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

The Senate, held on the 14th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

THE SABBATH RECORDER, JANUARY 18, 1877.

CONGRESS.

The Committee of the House, held on the 15th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

The Senate, held on the 14th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

In the House, held on the 15th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

In the Senate, held on the 14th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

In the House, held on the 15th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

In the Senate, held on the 14th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

In the House, held on the 15th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

In the Senate, held on the 14th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

In the House, held on the 15th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.

In the Senate, held on the 14th of February, a bill was introduced, known as the "Bill for the Establishment of a National Bank," which provided for the establishment of a national bank, with a capital of $5,000,000, to be located in Washington, D.C. The bill was referred to a committee, and was reported favorably by the Committee on Banking and Currency.