The Sabbath Recorder

Published by the American Sabbath-Keepers' Society.

"The Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord Thy God."

VOLUME XXXIII—No. 36

ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y., FIFTH-DAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1877

WHOLE NO. 1707.

...and the day of rest is to be extended to all the Eternal Lord's people. For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. No one ever yet kept the Sabbath as God would have us keep it...
THE SABBATH RECORDER, SEPTEMBER 6, 1877.

THE NEW SCHOOL OHUROH.

The Sabbath Recorder.

The new school, it is now evident, is not a new organization, but the continuation of the work of the Seventh-day Baptist denomination in America, and the result of the efforts of a few faithful and zealous men who have been laboring to establish it. It was established on the 1st of December, 1846, at New Bedford, Mass., by John D. Barrows, E. W. Barrows, and E. W. A. Barrows, who were then living in that city. The new school was, at the time of its establishment, under the name of "The New Bedford School," and was, at the first meeting, attended by about 200 members. The new school was, at the time of its establishment, under the name of "The New Bedford School," and was, at the first meeting, attended by about 200 members. The new school was, at the time of its establishment, under the name of "The New Bedford School," and was, at the first meeting, attended by about 200 members. The new school was, at the time of its establishment, under the name of "The New Bedford School," and was, at the first meeting, attended by about 200 members. The new school was, at the time of its establishment, under the name of "The New Bedford School," and was, at the first meeting, attended by about 200 members. The new school was, at the time of its establishment, under the name of "The New Bedford School," and was, at the first meeting, attended by about 200 members.
THE SABBATH RECORDER, SEPTEMBER 6, 1877.

[Article content begins here.]

[Continues with various articles and advertisements.]