The Sabbath Recorder, October 4, 1877.

The SABBATH RECORDER.

HE Communications.

The Committee of Ordinary Communications reported as follows:

The Committee of Ordinary Communications, having had under consideration a number of communications from the various churches and societies for the month of July, 1877, reporting the state of the Sabbath andTemple work, the latest evidence of the progress of the Church among other churches, and the prospects of the work in the future, have found that the reports are generally encouraging, and that the prospects are good for the future.

The Committee of Ordinary Communications, therefore, recommend that the reports be accepted and published in the following form:

1. The state of the Sabbath and Temple work in the various churches and societies for the month of July, 1877.
2. The latest evidence of the progress of the Church among other churches.
3. The prospects of the work in the future.

The Committee of Ordinary Communications further recommend that the reports be published in the Sabbath Recorder for the month of August, 1877.

The Committee of Ordinary Communications also recommend that the reports be published in the Monthly Circular for the month of August, 1877.

The Committee of Ordinary Communications further recommend that the reports be published in the Annual Report for the year 1877.
On motion was voted to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The second motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The third motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The fourth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The fifth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The sixth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The seventh motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The eighth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The ninth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The tenth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The eleventh motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twelfth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The thirteenth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The fourteenth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The fifteenth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The sixteenth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The seventeenth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The eighteenth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The nineteenth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twentieth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-first motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-second motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-third motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-fourth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-fifth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-sixth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-seventh motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-eighth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The twenty-ninth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.

The thirtieth motion was to adopt the report of the committee of the formation of a convention to be held here at the earliest possible time. The committee was appointed by the First Baptist Church, and their report was presented to the meeting. The report was adopted by acclamation.