Men of a man's word.

Luther wrote, 'Man of a man's word'—he who cannot keep his word, even if it should be to his own hurt, is rejected of God. It is not to be supposed that such a person can be trusted with anything from God. For this is not the case with those who cannot be trusted with any responsibility. But it is the case with those who are trusted with the care of the church, and who cannot be trusted with the sacred duties of the ministry. It is not to be supposed that such a person can be trusted with any serious trust, even if it be to his own hurt. It is only to be presumed that such a person can be trusted with any serious trust, even if it be to his own hurt.
