But he, while we were yet sinners, loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins (Rom. 5:8). And when we had passed away into the world, so as to be accounted the sons of God, we were to spread the gospel among all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit (Matt. 28:19). And this was to be done in every country, in every nation, in every language, among all the people. And even as Paul said, "To the Jew first, and also to the Greek (Rom. 1:16)."

And if we had passed away into the world, so as to be accounted the sons of God, we were to spread the gospel among all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit (Matt. 28:19). And this was to be done in every country, in every nation, in every language, among all the people. And even as Paul said, "To the Jew first, and also to the Greek (Rom. 1:16)."

And if we had passed away into the world, so as to be accounted the sons of God, we were to spread the gospel among all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit (Matt. 28:19). And this was to be done in every country, in every nation, in every language, among all the people. And even as Paul said, "To the Jew first, and also to the Greek (Rom. 1:16)."

And if we had passed away into the world, so as to be accounted the sons of God, we were to spread the gospel among all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit (Matt. 28:19). And this was to be done in every country, in every nation, in every language, among all the people. And even as Paul said, "To the Jew first, and also to the Greek (Rom. 1:16)."
THE SABBATH RECORDER, AUGUST 15, 1878.

...mandment we know written on beat... the freedom be...