THE SABBATH RECORDER, OCTOBER 31, 1878.

[Article content]

THE SABBATH DAY.

Delighted as we are at the prospect of being able to get our weekly letters into the hands of our readers, we are determined not to let the opportunity pass away without selecting as our leading subject one of the most important features of the Sabbath. This subject is so generally known and understood by the people of God, that we need hardly say anything about it; but we think it may be worth our while to say a few words about it, in order to make it clear to those who are not familiar with it.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is the day of rest, the day of refreshment, the day of prayer, and the day of worship. It is the day on which the Lord has blessed us with the gift of rest, and the day on which we may enjoy the fruits of our labor. It is the day on which we may spend time in prayer, and the day on which we may enjoy the company of our friends and family. It is the day on which we may rest and refresh ourselves, and the day on which we may enjoy the blessings of the Sabbath.