The Sabbath Recorder

VOLUME XXXV. NO. 47.
ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y., FIFTH-DAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1878.

WHOLE NO. 1704.

The Sabbath Recorder was founded by the American Sunday School Union in 1845. It was a monthly periodical that provided religious and educational content for its readers. The issues often included sermons, articles, and stories related to religious beliefs and practices.

The content of the article on this page would typically include topics such as theology, religious events, educational content, and possibly personal stories and sermons. The layout is typical of 19th-century newspapers, with multiple columns of text, smaller fonts, and dense paragraphs.

In the context of the period, the content would reflect the values and beliefs of the time, which were characterized by a strong emphasis on religious education, piety, and moral values. The papers often served as a platform for religious leaders and provided a forum for discussing religious matters.
