THE SABBATH RECORDER, JULY 17, 1878.

The Bible Service.

Condensed by a Christian Friend.

For Sabbath Day, July 14.

INTRODUCTORY.

After passing through a narrow archway, one found himself in a large hall, the ceiling of which was supported by a framework of iron girders. The hall was surrounded by a gallery, and on the floor below a large number of people were seated on chairs. In the center of the hall was a large table, around which stood several men, who were engaged in conversation. The hall was illuminated by gaslights, and the air was fresh and clean. The hall was quite spacious, and the people seemed to be enjoying themselves.

TUB.

The air was filled with the sound of music, and the room was crowded with people of all ages. There were children playing on the floor, and others sitting on the chairs, engaged in various pursuits. The room was furnished in a neat and tidy manner, and the people seemed to be greatly enjoying themselves.

Miscellaneous.

A girl was standing in the center of the hall, looking very much out of sorts. She turned to a man standing near her, and said, "What is the matter?" The man replied, "Oh, I'm all right." The girl asked, "Are you sure?" The man replied, "Yes, of course." The girl asked, "Then why don't you do something about it?" The man replied, "What can I do?" The girl asked, "You could go to the doctor." The man replied, "I can't afford it." The girl asked, "Why not?" The man replied, "I don't have any money." The girl asked, "Then why don't you go to the bank?" The man replied, "I don't have any money." The girl asked, "Then why don't you go to the store?" The man replied, "I don't have any money." The girl asked, "Then why don't you go to the hospital?" The man replied, "I don't have any money." The girl asked, "Then why don't you go to the hospital if you don't have any money?" The man replied, "Because I don't want to go." The girl asked, "Why not?" The man replied, "Because I'm afraid." The girl asked, "Why are you afraid?" The man replied, "Because I'm afraid of the doctors." The girl asked, "Why are you afraid of the doctors?" The man replied, "Because they don't like me." The girl asked, "Why don't they like you?" The man replied, "Because I'm not like them." The girl asked, "What do you mean?" The man replied, "I mean that I'm not like them." The girl asked, "What do you mean by that?" The man replied, "I mean that I'm not like them." The girl asked, "What do you mean by that?" The man replied, "I mean that I'm not like them." The girl asked, "What do you mean by that?" The man replied, "I mean that I'm not like them." The girl asked, "What do you mean by that?" The man replied, "I mean that I'm not like them." The girl asked, "What do you mean by that?"
