THE ERIE RAILWAY.

New York, July 12th, 1879.

Mr. Editor:

I was delighted to hear the news of the opening of the new Western Railroad in the west of Pennsylvania. The line, which has been much talked about and expected for some time, is now opened for traffic, and will undoubtedly be an important factor in the development of the region. The line extends from Buffalo to Pittsburgh, and is expected to be a great boon to commerce and industry.

Yours truly,
