The Sabbath Recorder.

VOLUME XXXV. - NO. 20
ALFRED, N. Y., FIFTH-DAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1877.
WHOLE NO. 1867.

This week's issue contains a number of articles and editorials, including:

- An editorial on the importance of Sabbath observance.
- A letter from a subscriber discussing the benefits of Sabbath rest.
- An article on the history of religious freedom in the United States.
- A report on the latest news from abroad.
- A section on health and wellness, featuring tips for a healthy lifestyle.
- A special section on education, highlighting the importance of Sabbath education for children.

The Sabbath Recorder is published by the American Sabbath Union, with offices located at Alfred, New York. It is dedicated to the propagation of Sabbath observance and the defense of religious liberty.
THE SABBATH RECORDER, SEPTEMBER 18, 1878.

THE NAPPA LAVER, OF THE

THE SABBATH RECORDER.

A Call to Good Company.

"Spnng" (Mass.)

Are not even your the presence of Lord Jesus Christ at h

1 Thess 3 13 To the end he may establish your hearte unblamab e n hohness befo e God even among those who would be...