In answer to the question: What command do we obey when we work on Sunday? The Banner says, "When we work on Sunday, we obey the Sabbath command.

At the close of the first annual session of the Tennessee Board of the Sabbath School, on Sunday, March 4th, the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, That the Board of Directors be, and it is hereby, requested to send a copy of the minutes of the annual session of the Board to the各大福音堂, and the committee to which they are referred.

2. Resolved, That the Board of Directors be, and it is hereby, requested to publish a circular letter to the各大福音堂, and the committee to which they are referred.

3. Resolved, That the Board of Directors be, and it is hereby, requested to give the各大福音堂 a copy of the minutes of the annual session of the Board.

4. Resolved, That the Board of Directors be, and it is hereby, requested to publish a report of the annual session of the Board.

5. Resolved, That the Board of Directors be, and it is hereby, requested to send a copy of the minutes of the annual session of the Board to the各大福音堂, and the committee to which they are referred.
THE SABBATH RECORDER, JANUARY 28, 1870.

Some details and details are presented, including various articles and advertisements. The text is difficult to read due to the condition of the image.