PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD.

We were visited a few days ago by a gentleman who came to see us in the interest of education. He was very much interested in our work, and said that he had known of the excellence of the institution for some years. He said that he had heard of the success of the institution, and that he thought it was worth the cost of the institution. He said that he had heard of the success of the institution, and that he thought it was worth the cost of the institution. He said that he had heard of the success of the institution, and that he thought it was worth the cost of the institution. He said that he had heard of the success of the institution, and that he thought it was worth the cost of the institution.
