The question involves a difficult and interesting problem. Let us see what the question is. The question is, 'What are the origins of the Sabbath?'

There are different views regarding the origins of the Sabbath. Some believe it originated from the Hebrews, while others argue that it was introduced by the Romans. What is your opinion on the origins of the Sabbath?
THE SABBATH RECORDER, DECEMBER 18, 1870.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

By T. T. Scull.

A NOVEL USE OF THE PULPIT.

Our editor has just received a communication from one of our readers, and it is as follows:

"I have been thinking of a new use of the pulpit that I should like to suggest. Instead of reading the morning paper, why not have the minister read from the evening newspapers? It would be a novelty, and would undoubtedly attract a great deal of attention. I think it would be a great help to the congregation, and would also be a means of getting the latest news."

We believe that this is a good idea, and we hope that it will be adopted. It would certainly be a refreshing change from the usual routine of the pulpit, and would no doubt be appreciated by the congregation. We also believe that it would be a great help in keeping the congregation informed of the latest news, and would undoubtedly be of great benefit to them. We therefore suggest that this new use of the pulpit be seriously considered, and we hope that it will be adopted in the near future.
