CHRIST IN ALL NAME

By REV. D. S. KINNAN, D. D.

"Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; Who also gave him a name that is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; Who also gave him a name that is above every name:"

"Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen."
The Sabbath Recorder, January 20, 1881.

Christmas at Bethlehem. The Church and Sabbath School, Feb. 10th, held a very pleasant and enjoyable service on the evening of Dec. 30th. The gathering was composed of the usual members of the Sabbath School, in connection with other friends of the church, and took an active part in the merriment and frolics which were enjoyed by all present. After prayer, the Rev. Dr. W. D. Gourley, of the Lower Marion Baptist Church, in Lexington, Ky., delivered an address. Dr. Gourley was in his usual sentences, impressive and beautiful, in his sound exegetical analysis of the parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins, and in his beautiful closing thoughts on the doctrine of the sabbath. The message was both instructive and edifying.

THE BIBLICAL READER.

"Let him who is without sin cast the first stone." In this awesome manner God's patience has been evinced toward us, and it is our duty to cast not the first stone against others. Let each one of us be watchful in regard to our conduct, and let us seek to do only those things that will be pleasing to God. Let us not be rash in our words, nor quick to judge others. Let us seek to be kind and generous, and let us not be quick to speak evil of our enemies. Let us be watchful in all things, and let us seek to do only those things that will be pleasing to God.

The Sabbath Recorder, January 20, 1881.

The Sabbath Recorder, January 20, 1881.

The Sabbath Recorder, January 20, 1881.

The Sabbath Recorder, January 20, 1881.
Nativity Day, was indeed a New Year scene, and I shall keep it most highly. This letter is Thomas Yancey, Grosvell's Pod.

[Text not legible]

The Sabbath Recorder, January 30, 1881.

In your last letter, you mentioned that you had just returned from a visit to the Sabbath schools, and asked if I had any news for the Recorder. I am sorry to say that there is not much news to report. However, I would like to share with you some observations that I have made during my recent travels.

First, the Sabbath school movement continues to grow. I have seen many new schools opening, and the existing ones are expanding. The demand for Sabbath school teachers is increasing, and I have been impressed by the dedication and enthusiasm of the teachers. It is clear that the work of the Sabbath school is vital for the spiritual growth of our young people.

Second, I have noticed a trend towards more emphasis on practical knowledge. In many of the schools I visited, the curriculum has been updated to include classes on subjects such as agriculture, trade, and domestic science. This is a positive development, as it equips our youth with the skills they need to succeed in life.

Third, there is a growing concern about the influence of the secular world on our children. I have seen some schools taking steps to protect their students from the negative influences of society. This is a commendable effort, and I am encouraged by the commitment of these schools to provide a solid foundation of faith.

In conclusion, I continue to believe in the importance of the Sabbath school as a place for spiritual growth and practical education. I look forward to seeing the continued success of this wonderful institution.

Yours faithfully,

P.S. Regarding the question of the organization of the Church in the West, I must say that I agree with your assessment. It is indeed a challenging task, but one that is essential for the growth of our church.
MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM OF LYONS, RHODE ISLAND.

Catarrh can be cured.

CHILD'S CATARRH SPECIFIC.

A Disease that is Disgusting! Destruktive! Deadly!

Do Not Use Nostrums in Attempting Its Cure.

THIRTEEN YEARS AGO

Catarrh was considered an intransigent enemy to human health. It was believed that it could not be cured. My professional friends, too, were skeptical, and I was induced to try a nostrum or two, which resulted in nothing but disappointment, disheartenment, and disgust. After much searching, I recovered the confidence of the doctor, to whom I applied my case. At the time, I was quite discouraged, and many others, after trying systems of medicine which have their advocates, have confessed that they have failed. My first efforts were to change the course of nature. I found, however, that the results were short-lived, and the symptoms soon returned. I then turned to a nostrum, but was unsuccessful. The symptoms returned, and I was left to the mercies of the doctor.

Thankfully, without knowing the nature of this disease, I was led to try a vegetable compound, and I was amazed at the results. The symptoms were relieved, and I was cured. I have used this nostrum for many years, and have never had a relapse. I am now cured, and my health is better than ever. I am now able to work without any trouble, and I am content with the results.

For All Afflicted With Catarrh in Any of Its Developments, CHILD'S CATARRH SPECIFIC Aids A SURE, SPEEDY, PERMANENT CURE.

My Treatment.

In my experience, the nostrums that are applied to the disease are not effective. To obtain a cure, I have found that the nostrums must be applied to the cause of the disease. The nostrums that I have used have not been effective because they have not been applied to the cause of the disease.

To All Who Suffer With Catarrh.

Catarrh has been applied to the nostrums. Many nostrums have been used, but they have not been effective. The nostrums that I have used have been effective because they have been applied to the cause of the disease.

REFERENCES AND CERTIFICATES.

To The Reader.

Catarrh is a very unpleasant disease, and it is important to obtain a cure. I have used the nostrums that I have described, and I am now cured. I am now able to work without any trouble, and I am content with the results.

REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

S. P.ווה, Bakers and Grocers, Washington, D.C.

C. & G. Cooper & Co.

Mr. Wm. C. Oakes, 1026 Main St., Chicago, Ill.

Peter Henderson & Co.

Engines and Saw Mills in this country.

P. R. COX, 239 Broadway, New York.

GARDEN

14 N. MAIN ST., WASHINGTON, D.C.

S. P. Wea., Bakers and Grocers, Washington, D.C.

The SABBATH RECORDER, JANUARY 20, 1881.
THE SABBATH RECORD, January 20, 1881.

DEPARTMENT OF SABBATH SCHOOL.

No. 85.

INTERMEDIATE LESSON, 111.

LESSON IN JUDGE.

FIRST QUARTER.

In the book of Judges, Chapter 13, verses 1 to 27, which we have before us, we find the story of the birth of Samson. This is an interesting story, and we should all be glad to learn its lesson and profit by its advice. We shall try to do this in our study this morning.

JUDGE.

The Israelites were in trouble, and they cried to the Lord, who heard their cry and sent a young man to help them. This young man was named Samuel, and he was the son of Elkanah and Hannah. He grew up to be a strong and mighty man, and he became the judge of Israel.

1. EXPLANATION.

Samuel was a judge, and he was called by God to be the leader of the people of Israel. He was a good judge, and he did his best to help the people of Israel. He was a good man, and he was loved by the people.

2. CONCLUSION.

Samuel was a good judge, and he did his best to help the people of Israel. He was a good man, and he was loved by the people. He was a good leader, and he did his best to keep the people of Israel from doing wrong. He was a good judge, and he did his best to help the people of Israel.

SABBATH-SCHOOL.

Milton, Mass. Our Christmas festival was held on Sunday evening, Dec. 26th. The program was well arranged, and the songs and the poems were well sung. The audience, and the walls were decorated with appropriate decorations. The gifts given as presents were very nice, and the girls who gave them were very happy.

1. EXPLANATION.

The program was well arranged, and the songs and the poems were well sung. The audience, and the walls were decorated with appropriate decorations. The gifts given as presents were very nice, and the girls who gave them were very happy.

2. CONCLUSION.

The program was well arranged, and the songs and the poems were well sung. The audience, and the walls were decorated with appropriate decorations. The gifts given as presents were very nice, and the girls who gave them were very happy.