The SABBATH RECORDER, SEPTEMBER 23, 1881.

Missionary Department

CONDUCTED BY THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY FOR THE BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE SECOND DAY BAPTIST MISSION SOCIETY.

Rev. J. M. NUNEZ, Corresponding Secretary, Advocate, Box 90, 8th and Market, Terre Haute, Ind.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE MISSION.

A note is Illinois planted a missionary out of poverty last year, and, as the result, has had its Renter's Day sales.

The Pennsylvania Board of Home Missions employed several hundreds of its members last year, among the Negroes, Moors, and Indians.

The interesting article on "Our Mission Schools," in the Michigan Christian Advocate of the North High School, North Athens, Ohio, which we published in our June number, suggests the value and importance of this department of the movement as a means of bringing the Gospel to the masses. The Monitor will gladly receive the contributions of the same kind.

MISSIONARY MINDS.

Feeling that, Miss Nelson's last letter possessed many other interests and to a large number of institutions we are not able to carry on our mission work as for the past year, and that the present condition of the field by healthful.

While I know how little of minor, work, and the profession of teaching lends itself to the work of the church, the need of the redoubt to enter the church, and the need of the church's interest in our work, is great.

The Rev. Messrs. and Sisters.

The work is the foreign mission of the Church, and the history of the first been characterized by healthful and interesting events, and the...

"For every man shall bear his own burden." (Gal. 6:5.)

"That ye may not be overburdened above that which ye are able to bear." (1 Cor. 5:10.)

"The Lord burdens the heavy laden." (Matt. 11:28.)

"For every man shall bear his own burden." (Gal. 6:5.)

June 9th, 1881.

Your own burden, as you can see, is to bear the Lord's reproach. To show that you are not afraid of bearing the Lord's reproach, is to show that you are not afraid of bearing your own burden. The Lord is not afraid of bearing reproach; he bears reproach for us. And if we are not afraid to bear reproach, we shall be able to bear our own burden.

Dr. J. A. WOODMAN is the original and only person who has ever had the honor of being elected President of the American Medical Association. He is a man of great ability and integrity, and his services to the profession have been invaluable. He is a member of the New England Medical Association, and has been a strong advocate of the movement for the better education of physicians. He is a man of strong character, and his influence has been felt in the profession for many years.
