The Sabbath Recorder.

Published by the American Sabbath-Sabbath Society.

Vol. XXXVII.-No. 44.

The Sabbath Recorder.

Published weekly.

At

Alfred Centre, N. Y., N. Y., Fifth-day, November 3, 1891.

Alfred Centre, N. Y., N. Y., Fifth-day, November 3, 1891.

THE SEVENTH DAY IS THE SABBATH OF THE LORD THEIR GOD.

FINISHED BY THE AMERICAN SABBATH-SABBATH SOCIETY.

THE SABBATH RECORDER.

Editors.

Dedicated to the memory of our dear friend, B. H. 爱情, who passed away, November 2, 1891.

The Sabbath Recorder.

One of the pages from the document contains an article titled "The Sabbath Recorder." It seems to be a religious publication, possibly related to the Seventh-day Adventist church, given the context and风格. The text appears to be an editorial or a letter discussing various topics related to Sabbath observance and other religious matters. The content includes quotes and references to other religious works and figures, hinting at a scholarly or commentary nature of the reading material. The text is dense and appears to be written in a formal, religious style.
MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT

Conducted by the Corresponding Secretary for the Board of Managers of the Second-Day Baptist Missionary Society.

B. E. A. Man, Corresponding Secretary, Admis.
112 E. F. P. Frame, Treasurer, Washington, N. J.

HOLD OF MISSIONS.

The regular meeting of the Board of Managers of the Second-Day Baptist Missionary Society was held at the Westbury Baptist church, in Westbury, L. I., Oct-
er 7th, 1881. The following were present:

B. E. A. Man, Geo. E. P. Frame, Geo. L. Smith, Geo. R. M. Burnham, Geo.

The President, George Greenman, occupied the Chair, and prayer was offered by J.

There were present, members of the Board of Directors, resident in New York,

B. E. A. Man, Geo. E. P. Frame, Geo. L. Smith, Geo. R. M. Burnham, Geo.

The regular meeting of the Board of Managers of the Second-Day Baptist Missionary Society was held at the Westbury Baptist church, in Westbury, L. I., Oct-
er 7th, 1881. The following were present:

B. E. A. Man, Geo. E. P. Frame, Geo. L. Smith, Geo. R. M. Burnham, Geo.

The President, George Greenman, occupied the Chair, and prayer was offered by J.

There were present, members of the Board of Directors, resident in New York,

B. E. A. Man, Geo. E. P. Frame, Geo. L. Smith, Geo. R. M. Burnham, Geo.

The regular meeting of the Board of Managers of the Second-Day Baptist Missionary Society was held at the Westbury Baptist church, in Westbury, L. I., Oct-
er 7th, 1881. The following were present:

B. E. A. Man, Geo. E. P. Frame, Geo. L. Smith, Geo. R. M. Burnham, Geo.

The President, George Greenman, occupied the Chair, and prayer was offered by J.

There were present, members of the Board of Directors, resident in New York,
The first page of the document contains a list of topics related to education, literature, and philosophy. The text is presented in a logical format, with each topic discussed in a paragraph or section. The page also includes references to other works and sources, indicating a scholarly approach to the topics.
THE SABBATH RECORD, NOVEMBER 8, 1881.

The Sabbath Recorder.

All communications, whether of business or otherwise, must be sent to Alfred Eaton, Alfred Eaton, Allston, Mass., U.S.A.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.

EXILE IN INTEREST.

In the epistle of Romans, entitled "An Am of Peace," which he addressed to some disturbed Christians in Asia Minor, he very strikingly says: "The fervent desire of the Gentiles is for a good name; the zeal of the wise is for a good life; and the strong desire of the just is for a good showing." This is true, and the spirit of this divine inspiration is manifested in all the great nations of the earth. Each people is so imbued with the spirit of this divine inspiration that the good name and the good showing are the highest objects of ambition.
The President and Secretary were instructed to sign the deed conveying the land to the bank and to see that it is legally recorded. They were instructed to begin repairs on the building.

A paper was presented to the Board containing the general proposition of E. R. Hoover, Jr., for the purchase of a portion of the property for the benefit of the bank. The Board was instructed to consider the proposal and to report their decision to the next meeting.

A committee of three was appointed to investigate the matter further.

The meeting adjourned.

The Board of Trustees met on the 1st day of December, 1831, to consider the matter further.

The Board of Trustees met on the 1st day of December, 1831, to consider the matter further.
The Sabbath Recorder, November 2, 1881.

PATENTS

The Universalist Convention at Denver recommended the revised edition of the New Testament, and directed the Convention to adopt the following resolutions:

1. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the first paragraph of the New Testament.

2. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the second paragraph of the New Testament.

3. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the third paragraph of the New Testament.

4. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the fourth paragraph of the New Testament.

5. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the fifth paragraph of the New Testament.

6. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the sixth paragraph of the New Testament.

7. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the seventh paragraph of the New Testament.

8. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the eighth paragraph of the New Testament.

9. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the ninth paragraph of the New Testament.

10. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the tenth paragraph of the New Testament.

11. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the eleventh paragraph of the New Testament.

12. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twelfth paragraph of the New Testament.

13. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the thirteenth paragraph of the New Testament.

14. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the fourteenth paragraph of the New Testament.

15. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the fifteenth paragraph of the New Testament.

16. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the sixteenth paragraph of the New Testament.

17. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the seventeenth paragraph of the New Testament.

18. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the eighteenth paragraph of the New Testament.

19. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the nineteenth paragraph of the New Testament.

20. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twentieth paragraph of the New Testament.

21. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-first paragraph of the New Testament.

22. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-second paragraph of the New Testament.

23. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-third paragraph of the New Testament.

24. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-fourth paragraph of the New Testament.

25. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-fifth paragraph of the New Testament.

26. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-sixth paragraph of the New Testament.

27. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-seventh paragraph of the New Testament.

28. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-eighth paragraph of the New Testament.

29. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the twenty-ninth paragraph of the New Testament.

30. That the word "patent" be inserted after the word "rights" in the thirtieth paragraph of the New Testament.