MISSIONARY DEPARTMENTS.

THE FOREIGN MISSION BOARD.

From 1821 to 1829, 1,100,000 foreigners landed on our shores; from 1829 to 1849, 2,000,000; from 1849 to 1860, nearly 6,000,000. Among those who have maintained their identity are a number of nations that have been almost totally assimilated by the English race; and it is to be feared that the acculturation of the American people will be as thorough as it has been in the past.

According to the census of 1870, one hundred and thirty-five million persons were living in the United States, of which 75,000,000 were white and 60,000,000 were colored. The United States is in the process of a great re-organization, and it is to be feared that the acculturation of the American people will be as thorough as it has been in the past. The Indian, who was once the dominant race, is now in a state of decadence, and it is to be feared that the acculturation of the American people will be as thorough as it has been in the past.
Sabbath Reform.

We have been struck by the fine management of the Sabbath Reform, and very glad to see the success it has had in our town at our last meeting. This work has been carried on under the direction of a committee of young people, and we are glad to see that the Sabbath Reform is being carried forward with great energy and zeal. We hope to see it continue to grow and flourish, and to bring forth many good results.

EDUCATION.

Education is the most important thing for young people to cultivate, and we are glad to see that the Sabbath Reform is carrying on this work in a most effective manner. We hope to see more young people take an interest in this work, and to see it carried on with energy and purpose.

SABBATH AND THE WORKHOUSE.

The Sabbath is a day of rest, and we are glad to see that the Sabbath Reform is carrying on this work in a most effective manner. We hope to see more young people take an interest in this work, and to see it carried on with energy and purpose.

TRACING THE CHILDREN.

The Sabbath is a day of rest, and we are glad to see that the Sabbath Reform is carrying on this work in a most effective manner. We hope to see more young people take an interest in this work, and to see it carried on with energy and purpose.

PLACES AND PEOPLE IN THE SOUTH-WEST.

VOLUME VII.

A group of regal edifices, about twenty miles distant, to the North-west can be seen from any elevated point at Santa Fe. They embody the whole system of the ancient Indian, and are marked by even a greater correspondence to the form of the present. Among them we have a table of the principal, and there would be more inquiry after the careful inspection of the buildings and the materials that have been discovered. The structures would be of little interest, and there would be some one who, in heart or conduct, an honor on our religion of Jesus would be for the first quarter. It is expected to have run out of the snow and other interesting matter besides in our religion. We have been impressed with the thought of the first quarter. NEW YORK.

The New York Review of the day was to be seen at the present work. There is a tenement housing in the religious district now being held, but no one is expressing a desire to read them. We have always a few papers, but the present work has more than enough to satisfy all possible human wants.

The most of the good we have at the present work is a long and wind and low temperatures, or formidable combination.

INTRODUCTION.

In the first lesson we have described the character of Paul in the days before his baptism in Christ. Though he was a man of good education and perhaps a scholar, he was not without faults of character and a tendency to the world. His life was marked by trials and persecutions, but in the end he was victorious.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LESSON:

The events that are about to be described are taken from the Acts of the Apostles. Paul had been a great helper of the Jewish Christians in Jerusalem, and in their absence he had been the leader of the church at Corinth.

The Deranged Cosmic of the Jewish Christians.

The account in the Acts of the Apostles is not so much a record of the events as it is a description of the state of affairs in the church at Corinth. It was a time of trials and difficulties, but also of hope and faith.

The text of the report is not given in the Acts of the Apostles, but it is supposed to have been a letter written by Paul to the church at Corinth, recording the events of the previous year.
