

Molly Blumberg

Artist Statement

Molly Blumberg is an artist based in Chicago, IL. Trained as a sculptor and a papermaker, her work is grounded in an extreme engagement with materiality. Her sculptural practice sits in the spaces between our human bodies and the materiality of lived environments, imagining their potential permeabilities. Through a playfully physical studio practice and a dedication to process based exploration, she explores how it feels to be a body.

She earned her MFA at The School of the Art Institute of Chicago in fiber & material studies in 2020 and her BFA from the Washington University in St. Louis Sam Fox School of Design and Visual Arts in sculpture in 2012.
