Leveling . . . . . 1

Leveling

Leveling your character is based off of your amount of skill points in all your skills. You will start at level 0 which means that you do not have any skills yet. To get to level 1 you have to have 1 skill level

Level	Skill Points	Level	Skill Points	Level	Skill Points
1	1	11	66	21	231
2	3	12	78	22	253
3	6	13	91	23	276
4	10	14	105	24	300
5	15	15	120	25	325
6	21	16	136	26	351
7	28	17	153	27	378
8	36	18	171	28	406
9	45	19	190	29	435
10	55	20	210	30	465

Every level you will roll your D100 and add them to one of 12 skills. When you level the first time you will choose your 1st stat priority. You will follow this chart to see when you will roll to see if you level up that stat again. If it is the 2nd or 3rd time you are rolling for adding to your priority stat you might go over 100 and if you do then you will put another point into that stat.

Level	Stat rank	Level	Stat rank
1	1	17	1
2	2	18	2
3	1	19	1
4	3	20	3
5	1	21	1
6	2	22	2
7	1	23	1
8	4	24	4
9	1	25	1
10	2	26	2
11	1	27	1
12	3	28	3
13	1	29	1
14	2	30	2
15	1	31	1
16	5	32	6

If you have a total of 20 between your two stats then you will have to have 2 points to be able to get the pair to 21.

When you are leveling you want to make sure you go by these steps.

- First you want to add a point into your stat if you are able to.
- Second you want to put your roll into your priority stat.
- Third you want to choose your advantage or perk for your level.
- Fourth you will want to roll and add your stamina, mana and health.
