Chapter Two

The magician was always searching for new and interesting worlds to explore. One day, he came across a world that was entirely different from anything he had seen before. This world was filled with magic and wonder, and the magician was instantly fascinated by it. He began to explore this new world, and as he did, he discovered more and more about the magical creatures and people who lived there. He even met a few of them, and soon he became friends with them. The magician continued to explore this world for many years, and it always remained a place of mystery and wonder to him.

Gracias a mi por ser tan bueno.
