

 YOU'RE BEING PROGRAMMED TO FORGET
WHAT IT MEANS TO BE HUMAN

Life is not scrolling.

Life is not content.

Life is not likes or reach.

Life is not a viral dance or a fake smile.

Life is presence.

It's messy. It's wild. It's unpredictable.

It's laughing off-camera.

It's crying in silence.

It's failing, learning, healing — without an audience.

But none of that fits the monetization model.

So they erased it —

And sold you a cleaner, edited, monetizable version called “digital reality.”

 GENUINE FEELINGS SACRIFICED FOR PERFORMATIVE PERFECTION

We've forgotten how to be raw. How to be real.

Everything must be flawless. Branded. Filtered.

We're afraid to show our true face.

Afraid to be wrong.

Afraid to fail.
