Boo Boo

This is the true story of a Blue Jay named Boo Boo and the kind woman who saved him.

Happy Goldfish

Your grandmother has a special way with animals. Her kindergarten carnival ball toss led one happy goldfish to live 14 years in her bedroom. She also had a hamster that lived so long under her care that it lost all of its hair! Your grandmother still has an amazing love for God's creatures.

The Blue Jay was damaged.

Broken

Lying under a bush he cried out, “Squawk! Squawk!” His first flight was his last. He had hit our house and would probably die, broken under a bush. But your grandmother took him in and named him Boo Boo just like the backyard Blue Jay her father fed when she was small.
