In this book you'll learn 50 weird "Did You Know" facts that you will find astonishing. They are incredible discoveries you'll want to tell all of your friends.

1. Only 8 percent of the world's currency exists as physical cash. The rest exists only on a computer hard drive, in electronic bank accounts around the world.
2. The world's first football club was the English Sheffield Football Club founded in 1857.
3. An ant wouldn't get killed if you microwave it. They don't have a high enough water content, and because they are so small, they can "dodge" the hot spots in the microwave just by walking around.
4. The African elephant has the longest gestational period out of all mammals, with an average pregnancy lasting almost 2 years.
