Puzzle Pieces . . . . . 1

Puzzle Pieces

Like an awkward portmanteau
We are shoved together again
An imperfect puzzle

Ignoring the stain
Of unspoken angst
Together we indulge
In this counterfeit love
A sham of the original

You are my secret sin
I hide you like gold
Or fine wine

We are a mystery unsolved
An enigma entwined
And we separate like plate tectonics
The ground rumbling beneath us

Our love dismantling
Slowly
Like oblivion
Unfolding

And like porcelain china
That shatters
When handled too rough
I too fall apart
Piece by piece

Like a broken mirror
That cracks in half
I split down the middle
Jagged at the edges

The remains of my virginity
Torn and ragged

And so
I splinter off you
At your request
Flaking off like snow

Until I am nothing
But dust again
Just as you left me before

Nothing but ash
In the embers of dying affections

As you drift away like miasma
Dissipating like smoke
