It was a dark and scary night. Boom! went the thunder. Woosh! went the wind. Suddenly there appeared a mysterious-looking creature on Monster Land. It wasn't any ordinary monster, instead it was a human! His name was Alex. He had dark hair, blue eyes, and he was pretty short for his age: at twelve years old, he was 4 feet 3 inches tall.

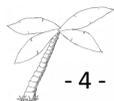

A few days earlier they were traveling on a boat to England. One night, during a sudden thunderstorm, Alex was standing at the bow looking at the beauty of the ocean in front of him. In the darkness he saw something out in the water that looked like a big green wave. He moved closer to the railing to see more. And suddenly, two big eyes the size of basketballs appeared in the middle of the wave. The eyes looked straight at Alex.

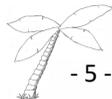

The green wave got bigger and bigger,
rising above the water around it.

Then Alex saw it. It was a big sea monster, like a big green whale. It was huge, with a scary pointy nose and it looked like it had long fins with hands at their end.

~ END OF SAMPLE ~

Follow Alex as he becomes stranded on Monster Land.
How will he survive on an island inhabited only by monsters? Will he make new friends?
Will anyone come to save him?
