

This table can help you as you invite members to study the gospel in their homes each week, both individually and as families. We invite you to study the two weeks of material in your family before you come to Sunday School and to come prepared to share your insights and questions. Your Sunday School leaders and teachers will keep you posted on any changes. Do not feel bound by the schedule but do what is best in your family circumstances to initiate a home-based, church supported gospel learning experience.
