

February 21, 2012

Contact: Todd Wilder
850.778.AFPR

Statement from AMERICANS FOR PATIENTS' RIGHTS

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Americans for Patients' Rights, an organization that advocates for the rights of injured workers, patients and their families, today urged Florida lawmakers to reject 'fuzzy math that doesn't add up' and resist the push by special interests to restrict the ability of injured workers to get the medicines they need from their doctors.

In today's online edition of Sunshine State News, the flawed arguments and arithmetic that some special interests are trying to sell to state lawmakers was debunked.

To read the entire column, Drug Repackaging Bill Not Ready for Prime Time for Good Reason, visit www.SunshineStateNews.com.

#