FLORIDIAN PARTNERS, LLC, WELCOMES TEYE REEVES, FORMER POLICY DIRECTOR, FLORIDA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, TO ITS TALLAHASSEE OFFICE

Tallahassee, Fla. – Floridian Partners, LLC, a statewide corporate and public affairs consulting and lobbying firm, today announced that Teye Reeves, former Policy Director for the Florida Chamber of Commerce, has joined the firm. Reeves will be based in the firm’s Tallahassee office, but will serve clients at both the state and local level out of our Tampa, Ft. Lauderdale and Miami offices. She can be reached at TReeves@flapartners.com.

A graduate of Texas Tech School of Law, Reeves’ legal background combined with her private and public sector experience in governmental affairs provides added expertise and depth to the team of professionals at Floridian Partners, LLC. Reeves most recently served as the director of Business Climate and Quality of Life issues for the Florida Chamber of Commerce, overseeing insurance, tort reform, tax, and health care policy and legislation.

“Teye is a tremendous addition to our team. Teye brings her great knowledge of the law, the workings of state and local governments, and her statewide contacts to our firm’s state and national clients,” said Managing Partner Charlie Dudley. “We are very excited to have Teye join our team – and are looking forward to her energy and new role in our firm.”

"Teye has quickly developed a wide-range of experience at the state and local level. She is a top notch, versatile talent who will bring immediate value to our clients," added Brian May, South Florida Managing Partner.

Floridian Partners, LLC is a firm that develops and manages effective corporate and public affairs strategies to achieve specific business results. Recognized by policymakers and their peers as one of the top public affairs firms in Florida, Team Members Rodney Barreto, Brian May, Charlie Dudley, Pat Maloy, Robert Reyes, Gary Guzzo, Jorge Chamizo, Scott Ross, Ken Granger, Tim Gomez and Ana Cruz have unique and diverse experience at all levels of government.
