Holland & Knight Welcomes Back Insurance Regulatory Veteran Beth Vecchioli

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (November 16, 2020) – Beth Vecchioli has rejoined Holland & Knight's Florida Government Advocacy Team in Tallahassee, Florida as a senior policy advisor. Ms. Vecchioli, a former regulator at the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation, focuses on insurance regulation, lobbying and financial services matters. She previously worked with the firm from 2012 to 2017.

"Beth is one of the most knowledgeable and respected professionals in Florida's insurance industry," said Karen Walker, leader of Holland & Knight's Government Section. "She brings incredible insight and determination to every matter she handles for our insurance clients. We are extremely happy to have her back on our team."

Ms. Vecchioli has extensive experience in the regulation of all types of insurance, reinsurance and specialty insurance products. She assists companies in the development of their insurance offerings and products, including policy forms, contracts and premium rates. She also routinely advises insurance and financial services entities on compliance, sales, marketing and business practices. Additionally, Ms. Vecchioli assists companies in obtaining licensure and in resolving regulatory issues in Florida and many other states.

Ms. Vecchioli previously worked as a senior-level manager and regulator at the Florida Department of Insurance/Office of Insurance Regulation for more than 10 years. In addition, she worked as a senior analyst for the Florida Department of Banking and Finance. For the past few years, Ms. Vecchioli was a senior director of government consulting at Carlton Fields.

"I'm glad to be reuniting with my friends and colleagues at Holland & Knight," said Ms. Vecchioli. "In the past few years, the firm has built an impressive infrastructure to service its insurance clients in Florida and beyond. I look forward to working with many of the firm's new attorneys and clients to address their regulatory needs."

Ms. Vecchioli is a frequent speaker and writer on the latest trends affecting insurance regulation and legislation. She received her B.S. degree from the University of Florida.
