

Learning Style Activity Becky Samitore-Durand

You will visit the following website and click on the Questionnaire link.

The VARK questionnaire will show you which area(s) are the strongest for your personal learning style. The quiz should be taken in Internet Explorer or Mozilla Firefox. Not all the results show up in other browsers.

- When you complete your questionnaire you will be given your strong suit.
- Listed below the scores for each area of learning style will be your preferred style underlined.
- Click on it and you will be given learning strategies which are designed around whichever area you are strongest in. If you have more than one area as a strong suit - be sure to click on all listed to best understand your needs.
