

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE MINNESOTA BASEBALL ASSOCIATION, INC.

Whereas, it is acknowledged that the Constitution and the By-laws of the Minnesota Baseball Association, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the MBA) provide the rules, regulations and policies for all Minnesota amateur baseball leagues under the Association and for all parties associated with the Association, either as a player, coach, manager, board member or director of a team association, club or corporation, league, sectional or regional officer or state board member; and,

Whereas, to ensure and improve upon the high standard of amateur baseball throughout the state which has come about in part because of the cooperation of all the parties above named, it is important that said parties acknowledge and admit that the rules, regulations and policies as established by the Constitution and the By-laws of the MBA are to be obeyed, adhered to and that the compliance with the Constitution and By-laws of the MBA is necessary and mandated for the well-being of the Association and all teams and leagues throughout the State.

THEREFORE, in furtherance of this concern and in recognition of the responsibility involved in action as a coach, manager, board member or director of a local team, association, club or corporation that is in any way, either directly or indirectly associated with the MBA or its leagues it is hereby acknowledged and admitted as follows:

1. That as a coach, manager, board member, or director of a local team, association, club or corporation (specify position and organization) hereby acknowledge and admit that the Constitution and the By-laws of the MBA establish rules, regulations and policies (either presently adopted or to be adopted in the future) which are to be obeyed and adhered to and that these rules, regulations and policies are reasonable, for the best interests of amateur baseball in the State and are a necessary and important part of the continued high standard of baseball in Minnesota.

2. I further acknowledge and admit that I, along with everyone affiliated with the Association (the exception being players under contract), am acting in a voluntary capacity, in part because of my interest in maintaining the high standards of baseball in this state and the Association.
3. I furthermore acknowledge and admit that just as players are contractually bound to obey and comply with the Constitution and By-laws of the MBA in order to be an eligible player, I too must recognize the best interests of baseball and for harmony between neighboring teams and leagues.
