What is Academic Preparation?

It is an I-Plan module that helps you to identify your level of preparation for university-level courses.

It is specifically designed for high school students transitioning to college, new college students, and return missionaries.

To Find the College Preparation module, you can access it via the drop down menu.

It helps you review and prepare for math, reading, writing, and study skills.

How do I take a quiz? Is it graded? Will it affect my grades?

Access I-Plan Website

Visit <https://iplan.byui.edu> and use your BYU-Idaho credentials to log in.

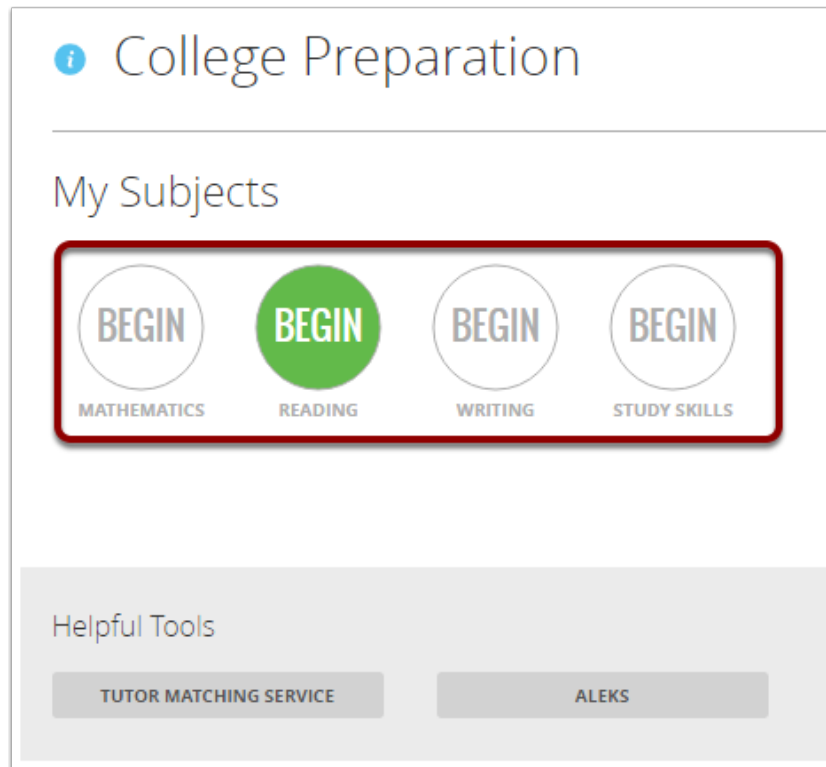

Go to the Academic Preparation module.

There are four quizzes: mathematics, reading, writing, and study skills.

You can take a quiz by clicking on the "BEGIN" button with the title of the quiz beneath it.

The quizzes are grayed out but will turn green after you take them. You can take them as many times as you want.

The quizzes are graded, but they will not affect any of your grades.

How do I sign up for an ALEKS test?

Go to I-Plan, if you don't know how to do this please click here.

In the Academic Preparation module, click the "ALEKS" button to be redirected to the placement exam.

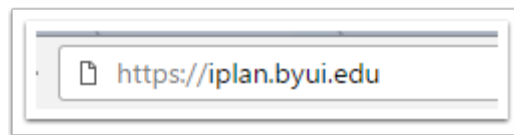

The ALEKS exam requires instructions and a code from the math department. To proceed further, you should talk to a faculty member there.

How does the Tutoring Matching Service work?

Access I-Plan Website

Visit <https://iplan.byui.edu> and use your BYU-Idaho credentials to log in.

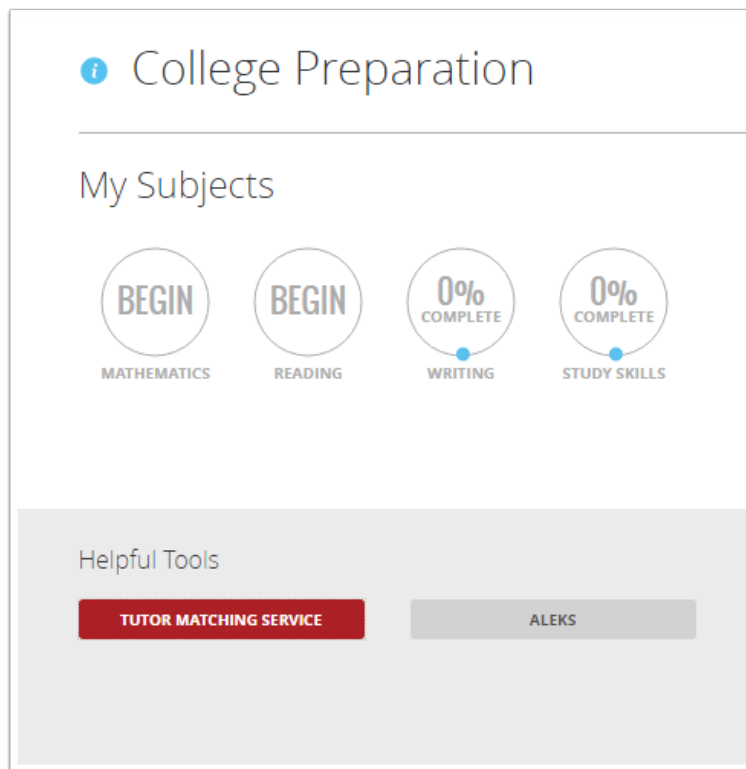

Go to the Academic Preparation module.

To access tutoring, click the "Tutoring Matching Service" button.

The tool is affiliated with the on-campus tutoring services, but they are not the same thing.

BYU-Idaho Online Knowledgebase

The button will redirect you to a new tab so you can find tutors.

Some of the tutors are free, but some tutors require a fee.

You can customize your search according to different categories of your choice.

Do I have to take all four quizzes?

No you don't. The quizzes are there for practice.

You are not required to take them, but you are advised to because the quizzes will help you prepare for college.
