Holidays 2016

Each year INCA strives to do amazing things for the people within our communities. While we are providing essential services to those in need all year long we also cannot forget how important the Christmas season is and what impact we can have on the young children who believe in magic.

Each holiday season our employees ban together and not only recruit volunteers but also volunteer themselves to make these projects successful. Without the dedicated members of the community and INCA staff members we would not be able to achieve dynamic results that can help influence a positive prospective of the world.

This season with gracious support from our communities:

951 CHILDREN RECEIVED GIFTS

390 HOUSEHOLDS RECEIVED A HOLIDAY BASKET

235 CHILDREN WERE ADOPTED FROM THE ATOKA COUNTY LITTLE ANGEL TREE

$3,917.35 was raised through the Toys for Tots campaign season! 408 Toys, 10 Books, and 79 Stocking Stuffers were dropped in the Toys for Tots Boxes and 364 toys were bought with campaign money.

Bell Ringers

JAMM Transit in Murray County participated in the Veterans Day Parade on November 11th-2016. It is important for JAMM Transit to show support for our Veterans by putting one to two vans in the parade every year since we are proud to have them riding with us daily. The highlight of the event is to announce the Marine Corp Toys For Tots Program. It was an honor to be saluted by the Marine Corp and other branches of Military.

INCA-RSVP was honored to take part in the Veterans Day Ceremony in Tishomingo, OK. It was a somber remembrance of the men and women that have fought and died for the freedoms of our great nation. Speakers included RSVP volunteers who are also members of the Johnston County Veterans Center, Clyde Runyon who was a staff sergeant during Vietnam and is a Bronze Star and Purple Heart recipient. The Beaver family was honored by placing their loved one, Sergeant Bobby Beaver on the Operation Enduring Freedom monument. Also in attendance was Oklahoma State Senator Frank Simpson and State Representative Charles McCall.
