

Hazard Communication Quiz

BLR's Safety Training Presentations

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Chemical manufacturers must label containers and provide _____.

2. Employers should keep material safety data sheets in a locked file cabinet.
True or False
3. Dizziness, nausea, rashes, and respiratory irritation are signs of _____ exposure.
4. List three routes by which a chemical can enter the body.

5. Household chemicals are never as hazardous as chemicals used at work.
True or False
6. On NFPA labels, a 4 in the red diamond indicates an extreme health hazard. True or False
7. Typical first aid for chemicals splashed in the eyes includes

8. You will only know the health hazards and PPE requirements if you
_____.
9. A _____ can be used to protect against breathing hazardous vapors or gases.
10. If you see a chemical spill, you should clean it immediately.
True or False.