BHS BOYS BASKETBALL (17-7) (1-2)

Last Tuesday Night the boys basketball team defeated Anna 58-39. Noah Shellman was leading scorer with 15, Wyatt Dolberry had 13 and Izaiah Epps had 11.

Friday night the boys fell short 91-65 to Aubrey. Wyatt Dolberry had 24, Josh Ukpe 17 and Noah Shellman 10. The boys take on Melissa Tuesday night at Melissa.

BHS GIRLS BASKETBALL (5-18) (0-5)

Tuesday the girls basketball teams traveled to Anna. The JV got things started. Mary and Cheyetta Dunigan led the way for the JV Lady Warriors, but in the end it was not enough to overcome the Lady Coyotes of Anna.

The Varsity played extremely well during the first half. Leading 19-16 at halftime the girls were poised for their first district win of the season. Leading the way for the varsity was Emma Bounds with 10 points and Melanee Lewis with 7 rebounds. The Lady Warriors fell short 33-51. Next up, the flu. The flu caused Friday's home game with Aubrey to be moved to Blue Ridge. With the move, the JV was not able to play. In the end, the Lady Chaps were too strong and won. Again the Lady Warriors were led in scoring by Emma Bounds with 8. Tuesday the girls travel to Melissa and Friday play host to Princeton. Both teams will play. JV at 5, Varsity at 6.15.

BHS Girls Soccer

The soccer girls went to the Highway 5 invitational and played two games. They lost to Denison and tied 1-1 against Garland ILT. Aiziah Walker scored her first goal of the season getting past 2 defenders and the goalie. The girls play A+ academy on Friday at Warrior Stadium.
